Opportunities to Begin Again

November 19, 2012

To the Aloha Asia-Pacific Center for Regenerative Design:

Safe Haven/Mental Health Kokua is in support of the Food Forest at Kamali'i Park in Honolulu, and believe it will be an important addition to the Chinatown and Downtown community. We look forward to the ways in which it will benefit the neighborhood, and the connections it will undoubtedly foster among the diverse cultural communities of Honolulu, and are excited to be involved.

Our transitional homeless shelter for the severely mentally ill is located across the street from Triangle Park. The strategy is to be involved long-term as neighbors and community stewards, and we plan to integrate the Food Forest into our program to provide educational, therapeutic, and community service opportunities for the individuals served by our program.
